

February
Student of the Month

Sheldon Elementary
Demonstrating Self Motivation

Liam Arriola Rodrigues

Ms. Mendoza | ESN

Congratulations to Liam!
His dedication to his schoolwork shows how self-motivated he is. He especially likes to work on letters, shapes, and colors.
Yay, Liam!

Esmeralda Diaz Cuevas

Ms. Sylvia | TK

Esmeralda is always motivated to learn. She likes to participate in our classroom discussions and is always focused when she's doing her classwork. She also enjoys the Art projects. It's a pleasure having her in our class!

Louis Pham

Ms. Ransom | Kindergarten

Louis consistently demonstrates a tremendous amount of self-motivation in all he does. He comes to school every day ready and willing to learn. He always takes care to complete quality work, keeps his desk and belongings organized and listens and follows directions.
Great job, Louis!

Katean Malinis Choy

Ms. Gutierrez | Kindergarten

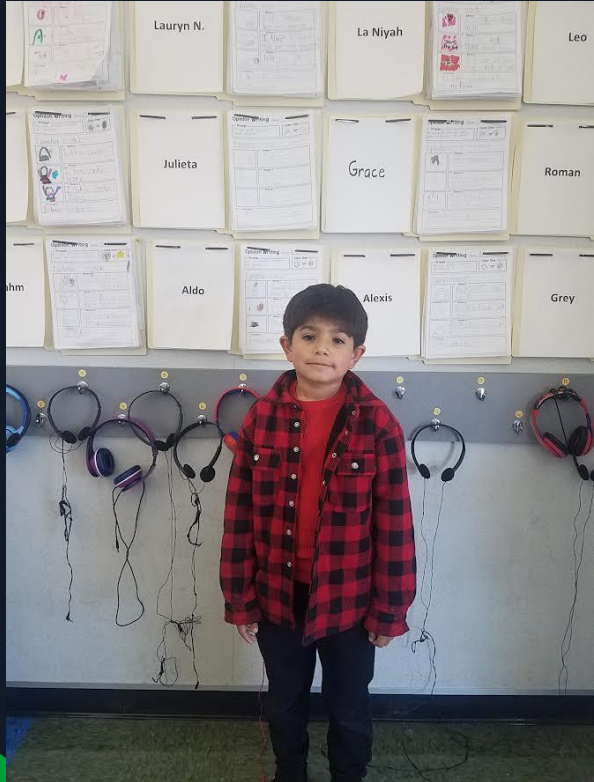

Kali consistently show a desire to learn new concepts and always strives for the best. She sets an amazing example for her fellow peers and it is a joy watching Kali grow!

Great job Kali!!

Aldo Martinez

Ms. Berenguer | 1st Grade

Aldo is excited about school and learning. Even if we are learning something new or reviewing a lesson, Aldo always makes an genuine effort. He is a self motivated learner— loves to read, wants to do work so he can be a better, smarter student. He also encourages and helps others! Good job, Aldo.

Maria Clara Santos

Ms. Howard | 1st Grade

Maria is in control of her learning and takes action to better herself. She has become a fast learner that studies at home for upcoming tests. She pays attention in class to meet her goals. She holds herself accountable and never blames others. She understands "mistakes are beautiful if we learn and grow from them."

Amada Padilla

Ms. Murphy | 2nd Grade

Amada demonstrates self-motivation in many ways! Amada listens attentively to instructions and rarely needs extra reminders to get started on her work. She is motivated to reach her goals, and uses a growth mindset to motivate herself. Thank you for being a role model, Amada!

Emil Brown

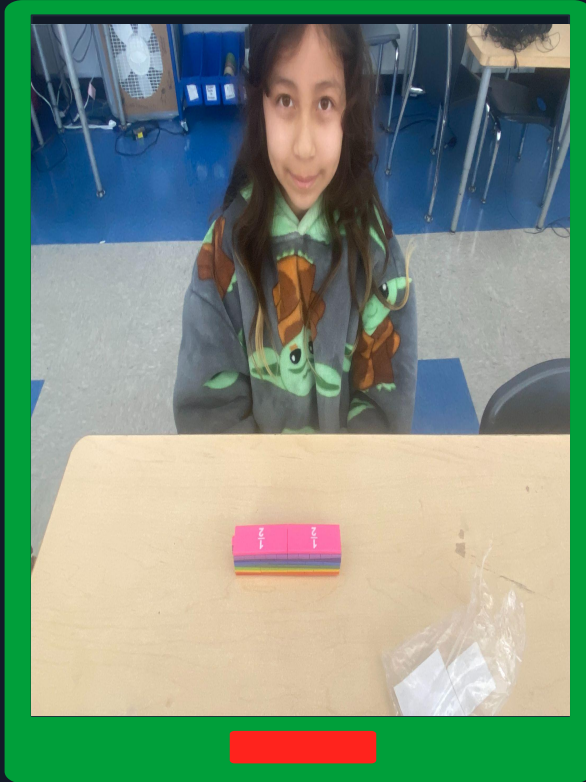

Ms. Tran | 2nd Grade

Emil is a highly motivated scholar. He enjoys being academically challenged as well as helping his fellow scholars achieve their goals. He doesn't hesitate to participate. Emil's persistence show his dedication to learning. Keep it up!

Giselle Santos Sanchez

Ms. Marker | 3rd Grade

Giselle is incredibly self-motivated in class. She often takes initiative, is resilient and shows great pride in her work. Giselle consistently pushes herself to do more or to reach higher goals and encourages others along the way. She is an excellent example of what it looks like to be self-motivated.

Kenneth Brunner

Ms. Wolfman | 3rd Grade

Kenneth has been working very hard on his self motivation this month. He has been working on getting his work completed and turned in, as well as participating in class discussions. Great job, Kenneth!

Ezmae Hatchett

Ms. Bunney | 4th Grade

Ezmae is a fabulously self-motivated student! Not only does she show it in her actions, both academically and as part of our classroom community, she notices it in others. In the class, she always does her work and wants to learn, as well as help others with theirs and assist in keeping the class (and me:) organized. Whether we are reading a story or talking about events, she has pointed out “that’s self-motivation!”

Lauren Bray

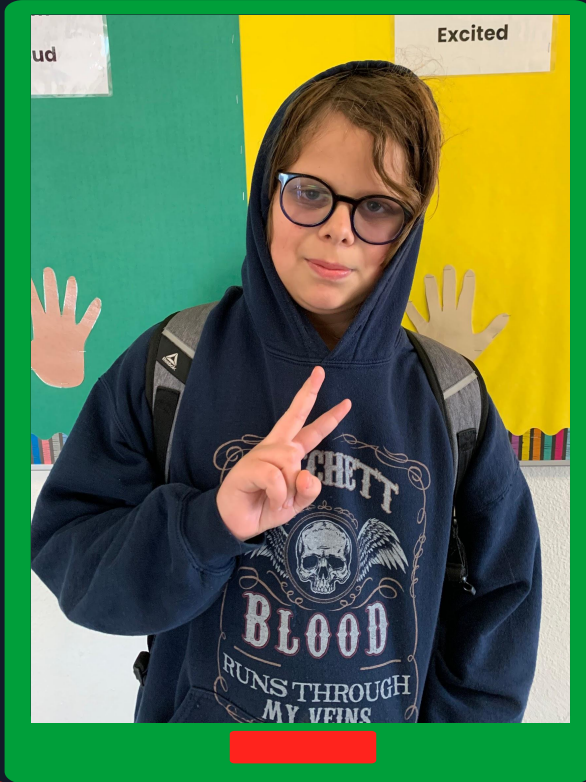

Ms. Papps | 4th & 5th Grade

Lauren demonstrates self-motivation every day. She comes to school with a smile, positive attitude and growth mindset. She's ready to learn and very organized. She always takes care to focus on and complete all of her work. Lauren is also a good listener and participant in class. Great job!

Lorenzo Hatchett

Ms. Avalos | 5th & 6th Grade

Lorenzo has been working really hard during the month of February to increase his self-motivation and it has paid off! Lorenzo consistently gets his assignments done in a timely manner, has a growth mindset, and participates in class. Congratulations Lorenzo for being Room 25's student of the month!

Catherine Marticio

Ms. Oropeza | 6th Grade

Catherine is a focused and determined Sixth Grader! She completes her work to the best of her ability and is not afraid to ask questions when she needs clarification or support during Math and W. I. N time. She values and understands the importance of her education. We look forward to seeing her continue to strive to be her best!! Keep being self-motivated and keep up the good work!

