SHELDON ELEMENTARY

Respects Personal Space

RYAN HERNANDEZ GAITAN

Ms. Mendoza | ESN

Ryan respects personal space. He gently approaches his teachers and peers and demonstrates using safe hands in the classroom and playground. Keep up the awesome work, Ryan!

AUBREY TAING

Ms. Sylvia | TK

Aubrey always makes sure that she sits criss cross applesauce on the rug and keeps her hands on her lap so that everyone can have their own personal space. She also always sits quietly at the tables and is always ready to do her work!

MARIA SANTOS

Ms. Ransom | Kindergarten

Maria really knows how to respect the boundaries of others. When lining up, sitting on the carpet or working independently at her desk, Maria is always considerate of those around her and encourages others to follow her example!

NOOR AHSAN

Ms. Gutierrez | Kindergarten

Noor consistently respects our class expectations and classmates everyday! She keeps her hands and feet to herself, uses kind words with her peers and respects personal boundaries of others. Way to go Noor! <3

ALEXIS MONTES ALVAREZ

Ms. Berenguer | 1st Grade

Alexis shows respect in the classroom with his teachers and peers by being kind and aware of personal space. He follows the classroom rules, such as listening and having safe hands. He shares school materials with others and tries to stay focused during group activities.

SHANNON MARTINEZ QUINTANA

Ms. Howard | 1st Grade

Shannon is great at respecting the space and boundaries of her peers. On the carpet, she sits criss cross applesauce. She keeps her hands and feet to herself at all times. If she wants a hug, she will ask for permission first.

BERNARDO ALMEIDA

Ms. Murphy | 2nd Grade

Bernardo is respectful of others' personal space and boundaries at all times, whether he is in class, at recess, or anywhere at Sheldon. He uses his words to ask for more space when he needs it. Thank you, Bernardo!

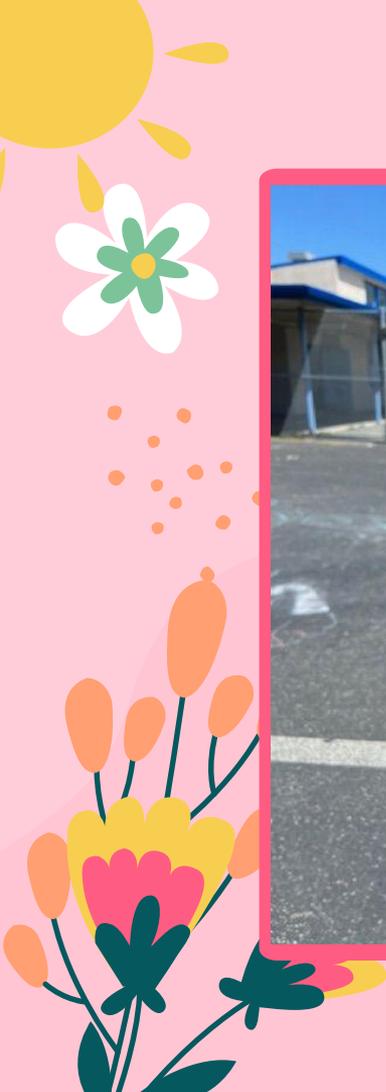

MINAL MALIK

Ms. Tran | 2nd Grade

Minal is a wonderful example of a student that respects personal boundaries. She asks for permission before hugging adults or peers. She uses kind words to set her personal boundaries with others, too.

MOHID MALIK

Ms. Marker | 3rd Grade

Mohid is a great student, he's respectful of all his peers and attentive to their body language. He gives his peers their personal space and asks if they want a hug or high five. Mohid communicates his needs and listens to others. Thank you Mohid for being a class leader.

KIMBERLY VELAZQUEZ TADEO

Ms. Wolfman | 3rd Grade

Kimberly is a wonderful example of a student that respects personal boundaries. She sits quietly on the carpet for morning meetings and is respectful of other students' space. She uses kind words to set her personal boundaries with others, too.

JOANNA (SUMMER) RODRIGUES

Ms. Bunney | 4th Grade

Summer was nominated by several of her classmates for respecting personal space! As one classmate wrote- “she respects my personal space and she sticks up when someone’s in another person’s space.” Congratulations Summer!

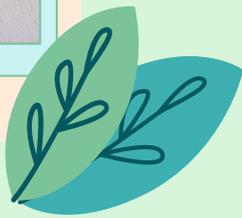

EMERSON BROWN ANGULO

Ms. Papps | 4th & 5th Grade

Emerson has grown so much this year. He has learned to respect his classmates and their personal boundaries. He keeps his hands and belongings to himself in line and on the carpet. Great work, Emerson!

SOPHIA ALVAREZ

Ms. Avalos | 5th & 6th Grade

Sophia is a very respectful scholar, especially of other people's personal space. She uses kind words when she needs personal space, follows classroom expectations, and keeps her hands and feet to herself. Congratulations Sophia for being Room 25's Student of the Month!

RAEHEL MARTICIO

Mr. Oropeza | 6th grade

Raechel is a hard working student and gets great grades, but she also is n't afraid to speak up and ask for help when she needs it. Now Raechel knows how to handle those situations on her own, which is a great start. The respect for other's space that she shows her classmates and adults is another thing she needs to be recognized for this year. Congratulations Raechel for being our student of the month!
