DeJean Middle School

New Life Movement

What we do:

- Build healthy interpersonal communication skills.
- Teach students emotional resilience, and how to make informed decisions.
- Provide participants with the tools needed to mindfully navigate potentially volatile interactions.
- Inspire real and lasting personal growth in participants.
- Support holistic intervention for youth to increase school engagement, including family support

Goal: To encourage flexibility in communications to ease tensions between individuals, and equip students with emotional management tools.
